Balancing Academic Careers with Superb Patient Care: How do we do it?
A Dialog with Mark Laret and Ernest Ring, MD

Date: Monday, May 8, 2006
Time: 4:00-5:30pm
Location: Cole Hall

Who:
• The School of Medicine Faculty Council
• The Committee on Clinical Affairs
• Mark Laret, Chief Executive Officer, UCSF Medical Center
• Ernie Ring, MD, Chief Medical Officer, UCSF Medical Center

Topics of Discussion:
• The value of the time spent in clinical care with respect to the advancement of ones academic career
• The degree to which clinical care is appropriately rewarded for time spent
• The degree to which the current clinical structure provides a worthwhile teaching environment
• The means by which we foster creativity and innovation in patient care at UCSF in a manner that enables us to distinguish ourselves from patient care in the community

Questions? Contact: Heather M. Alden
Senior Senate Analyst for the School of Medicine Faculty Council
415-476-8827 or halden@senate.ucsf.edu