Welcome!

Thank you for your participation in this building evaluation study. This study is a joint effort between UCSF and the Center for the Built Environment at the University of California Berkeley.

The survey will take approximately 20 minutes.

Your feedback will provide valuable data that will be used to identify how successful your building is in meeting its performance goals. Results (in summary form) will be presented to the building’s owners, managers, design team, maintenance personnel and the Center for the Built Environment’s research staff and membership. Strict confidentiality of individual responses will be maintained.

☐ Check this box if you are using a screen reader for the visually impaired.
