

Instructional Grants: Call for Proposals

The UCSF Instructional Grants Program is offering grants of up to 10,000 for instructional improvement projects. Proposals are due Monday, March 1, 2004.

Grants may be used to fund improvement of existing programs, development of new programs, introduction of experimental approaches to instructional content, and teaching evaluation activities. Proposals involving the application of instructional technology to teaching and learning are encouraged.

UCSF faculty, students, and staff are invited to submit grant proposals. Non-faculty applicants need to include a letter from a faculty sponsor with their application.

More information, including program guidelines and application procedures, is available at <http://cit.ucsf.edu/grants/guidelines.php>

For questions, contact Brian Warling, citgrants@library.ucsf.edu, or (415) 502-6678.