- Nomination packets must be no more than 20 double-sided pages (40 pages total). The CV and nomination form do not count in this limit.
- Nomination packets must include all documents as one single PDF document (please make your PDF from a Word document, do not create a PDF of all scanned documents, they are difficult to read.) The nomination form must be the cover or first page of the nomination packet. Nominator will be notified if nomination packet is incomplete. Deadline must still be met.
- Submit nomination packets at <https://senateserviceportal.ucsf.edu/v3/award/nominate>.

For the Nominator

Nominators should submit the following to the Nominee's Department Chair:

- This nomination form
- A letter of nomination from you
- Up to three (3) letters of support from intramural faculty
- Up to six (6) letters of support from UCSF students, residents, or fellows. At least three (3) of these letters must be from current UCSF students, residents, or fellows.
- Nominee's current curriculum vitae

Letters of support should address the nominee's effectiveness as a teacher, relevance to the professional or academic needs of the students, mentoring, availability, versatility, outstanding teaching style and/or outstanding teaching aids. All letters may be addressed to "The Distinction In Teaching Award Selection Committee."

For the Department Chair

Department Chairs should add the following materials to the nomination packet, and are responsible for submitting the packets to the Academic Senate by 4:00 pm, Friday, December 13, 2024 at <https://senateserviceportal.ucsf.edu/v3/award/nominate>.

- Copies of student, resident, or fellow evaluations in the department's customary format.
- Letter of support from the Department Chair, not to exceed three (3) pages, summarizing the nominee's teaching hours, courses, types of teaching (didactic, clinical, laboratory etc.), versatility, effectiveness, mentoring, and personal contact with students, residents, or fellows.
