

Academic Senate Committee on Research
Call for Nominations
Faculty Research Lectures
Basic Science * Clinical Science * Translational Science

Nomination Deadline 5pm, Monday, June 12, 2017

The Academic Senate Committee on Research is now accepting nominations for the 2017-2018 Faculty Research Lectures.

Each year this distinction acknowledges outstanding scientific achievements made by members of the UCSF faculty in three areas:

- Clinical Science (lecture held in Fall 2017)
- Basic Science (lecture held in Winter 2018)
- Translational Science (lecture held in Spring 2018)

The Committee on Research accepts nominations of all individual faculty or teams of 2-3 faculty (all currently at UCSF) from any series.

The Committee on Research invites nominations of researchers from all basic- and clinical-focused fields, social & behavioral sciences, and policy-related fields of research.

Examples within social & behavioral sciences and policy-related fields of research include, but are not limited to:

- Sociology of health and illness
 - Social inequalities in health/health disparities
 - Tobacco control policy
 - Aging and aging health policy
 - Global health

Academic Senate members are asked to consider the contributions of their colleagues so that their lifetime achievements may be recognized by the UCSF community. An emailed document (.PDF format) containing the following information must be received by the Academic Senate Office no later than 5pm, Monday, June 12, 2017.

- A one-page letter summarizing the most outstanding achievements of the nominee's scientific career.
- A current curriculum vitae and a cover sheet that contains the nominee's name, degree(s), title, department(s), and school affiliation(s).
- Three letters of support from individual UCSF faculty.
- Four representative reprints of the candidate's publications. Nominations of teams of 2-3 faculty must submit reprints that include all members of the team on the publication.
- One of the nominating faculty must be available to present the candidate to the Committee on Research at its meeting on Monday June 19, 2017 (3pm- 5pm) on the Parnassus Campus.

Nominations should be emailed to Senior Analyst Ken Laslavic (kenneth.laslavic@ucsf.edu).

Previously submitted nomination packets will be reconsidered as is, as long as the nominator verifies that those providing letters of support still agree to do so.

Please contact Ken Laslavic at 415-476-8827 with questions.
